

Web Designer

Job Description:

The Web Designer is responsible for the web design across tedxuoft.com, from conception to execution.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Responsible for designing, implementing and ensuring the usability of TEDxUofT's website;
- Create the look, layout and features of the conference page;
- Update the website with new material as required;
- Collaborate with the Design team to ensure the web design is consistent with the brand and other design material;
- Attend and participate in team meetings.

Qualifications:

- Coding skills (HTML/CSS/Javascript) and/or familiarity with front-end frameworks;
- Creative;
- Experienced in designing responsive website layouts and grid design;
- Deadline oriented;
- Productive, fast and detail-oriented;
- Excellent teamwork skills.

How to apply:

Please fill out the TEDxUofT hiring form here and email your cover letter, résumé, and portfolio to applications@tedxuoft.com by June 30th, 2017. Indicate the role you are applying for in the subject field.